Apps We Love ... And Why You Should, Too

These days it seems to be a widely held belief that, no matter what function you need your smartphone to perform, there is an app for that. And of course your neighborhood library is no exception. If you haven't already discovered the magic of our various library apps, open the App Store or Google Play and explore. In fact, scan the QR code below to learn more about our favorite apps, such as:

What We're Reading

Becky Hels, Circulation Services Lead is reading:

At the Edge of the Haight
by Katherine Seligman

This book follows a homeless 20-year-old girl living in San Francisco as she navigates her streetwise "family", cares for her dog, and learns to survive after witnessing a brutal murder of a fellow homeless boy.

Also try:

- The Leavers by Lisa Ko

- The Girl Who Fell From the Sky by Heidi Durrow

- From the Ashes by Jesse Thistle
